ever held by the society which has represented Westmoreland county for almost a score of years. During the year many improvements have been made about the grounds in general, and the greatest has been the erection of a merchants' industrial hall, 50x100 feet in dimensions and two stories high. This was necessary, as the large floral hall has been too small for the exhibits which have so laviship brought in by the people of the county, which take a great interest in these fairs. The entries are being brought in for overy class this year with a great deal of energy, although brought in for every class this year equal and one which is alone in its by a required with a great deal of energy, although class as an out of door amusement morning. the slowness of the season is aut to the slowless of the season is ant to strike the fruit and vegetable exhibits. The dog show, which has been pop-ular for several years, will be given larger exhibiting space this year than ever before, and the poultry show, which has always been one of the best, promises great interest this year. The races will be attractive reit. The races with the definition of the horse and $2,000 will be given in purses. On Wednesday, Schember 11, there will be a 2:30 2123 trot for a $250 purse. Local and Personal Mention.

We begin our Fall Season September First.

Gur Baily Bulletin

CONNELLSVILLE | PUBLISHED EVERY EVENING - TELLS TOMORROWS NEWS | UNION TOWN

On this date we make an authoritive showing of all kinds of ready == to == wear apparel.

We have chosen our Fall Stocks with full deference to the newest trends of fashion in fabrics, patterns and designs, but more important to you is the fact that we've taken pains to verify beyond question, the workmanship, fabric and quality of every garment. It is a protective measure that guards you against shams of the manufacturer of ready-to-wear apparel and insures your money's worth for every penny you spend.

From now on our windows will depict the newest and most popular of Fall Styles, and there is one important remark that we wish to make emphatic. We do not attempt a showing of new apparel at the beginning of a season until our stocks afford a wide and varied choice of garments. When we announce a showing you may expect to find a wide variety of garments from which to select.

We especially direct attention to our showing of Women's Ready-to-wear Apparel, Men's Fall and Winter Suits and Overcoats. Our initial showing of Millinery and Fall Hats for Men. We further direct attention to our window displays of Fall Styles.
